KAIULANI SCHOOL

Cosmopolitan Audiense Pleased With Work Of Children

The results of the careful training vere manifested at the closing exercises of the Kalulani School Friday morning. Mrs. Nina L. D. Frasher the principal, assisted by her assistants, received the guests and assigned them to seats.

At the singing of "He Lei no Katulani," dedicated to the late Princess Kaiulani, Miss Annie Charlton, one of the pupils of the school. trait of the late Princess with leis of illma, tuberose, maile, carnation, and other flowers. The decorating ended simultaneously with the singing of attractively decorated with artificial butterflies made of colored paper. On the blackboards were pictures of lilies and other flowers, all of which were drawn by the pupils. Princi pal Mrs. Frasher expressed great pleasure at the progress made by the pupils during the year. The attend ance has been large during the tern and out of the whole student body about one hundred children attender regularly without missing a day. Their names were read at the close of the exercises, after which a basketball game was played. The uniforms were of green and yellow, the chool colors.

Governor Cleghorn, who is usually resent on such occasions, was represented by a card, which he sent through Miss Cleghorn, his niece, The audience was of cosmopolitan character. It consisted of various races whose children are pupils at the school. The singing and the dancing of the pupils were especially pleasing.

The bootblack drill and the broom drill were given with perfection. The doll exercises and the Russian dance amused the audience immensely causing many Asiatle parents to stand to see their children go through the motions. The dialogues of different characters were particularly interesting to the visitors, and the whole program was run off with-out a hitch. Mrs. Frasher and her assistants were the recipients of many congratulations and the parents came away greatly satisfied with the exercises. Judging from what some of the parents said, it is apparent that the school will be overcrowded at the commencement of the school year, as a good many of the parents desire to send their children to the Kaiulani school.

BOOZE BOARD

Resigns At The Open · Meeting Yesterday Afternoon

Joe Gilman tendered his resignation as a member of the Board of License Commissioners yesterday afternoon at the open meeting. He gave no reason why he gave up his duties, merely stating that he had sent in a letter formally tendering his resignation, leaving it to be surmised that he was forestalling any decision from the Attorney General concerning the right he had to be a member of the Board.
